30 PER CENT SAVING TO FARMERS. TED BLOOD MANURE is beyond all doubt the most powerful and valuable Fertilizer ever offered to the public. Certificate of Professor Booth. Upon examining the composition of the best Peruvian Guanos, I can perceive no ground for assuming it to be the best that can be made .-On the contrary, there is always present more English Hearts and English Hands, or the or less of superfluous matter, sometimes in English Hearts and English Hands, or the alway and the Trenches, by the author of Odam & Hare's Patent, is, in my estimation, sunt, "Hedley Vickers" 1 vol. 75c. perior to that of the best Guanos, or to any other artificial manure of which I have heard, and I think myself the more entitled to give this positive opinion, from the unlooked for results | shall always have a Will of my own." of the action of sulphuric acid on animal matter, which I obtained in experiment, but which were anticipated by the Patent in question.

Respectfully Yours, JAMES C. BOOTH. Certificate of Professor Fruzer. At the request of parties interested, I have no hesitation in stating my opinion, that the mode Emerson's & Putnam's Magazine for May, 25 of preparing an artificial manure, by acting upon animal matters by sulphuric acid, as detailed in Dr. Hare's Patent, and mixing the resulting substance with animal, charcoal and phosphate of Lime, is correct in theory, and although I have had no opportunity of testing the manure thus formed practically, I have no doubt that a manure formed by the mixture of these ingredients in proper proportions would be found at least to equal in its effects the best Guano JOHN F. FRAZER.

Guano November 22, 1856. It is put up in bags of one hundred and fifty pounds each, and sold at $45 per nett ton.

A SONG OF EVERY DAY LIFE.

Adieu! ye expectations dear, Expectations dear, adieu! That sweetly whisper'd to our hearts, And gilded life anew. No more the gentle thrill of hope, The agony of fear, They both alike, are vanish'd now, And all is blank despair! Adieu! ye expectations dear, Expectations dear, adieu!

With bended heads, and "bated breath," Soft smiles the cheeks adorning-We humbly "crook'd the pregnant knees, That thrift might follow fawning;" But, all in vain! the cherish'd hope, The agony of fear! For gone-forever gone-are both, And now, all's blank despair!

Expectations dear, adieu! How oft, we dream'd, as rolling years Have borne their treasures by, [stores, Those favour'd hands, which reap'd their Would heap them for our joy;

Adieu! ye expectations dear-

But, all in vain! the cherish'd hope, The agony of fear! For gone-forever gone-are both, And now, all's blank despair! Adieu! ye expectations dear, Expectations dear, adieu!

Of late, we deem'd the crowning bliss, Had circled on our brow, That all we'd sought, at last was ours, No more to cringe and bow; But all in vain! the cherish'd hope, The agony of fear! For gone-forever gone-are both, And now, all's blank despair! Adieu! ye expectations dear, Expectations dear, adieu!

"Then," said Judge W—, "if you have no friends and no money, I must proceed to prononce the sentence of the Court, which is, that you be imprisoned for thirty days in the House of Correction-and may God have mercy on your soul."
